MUCH PROGRESS MADE IN TRIAL OF HARRIS

Court Bars Evidence as to Testimony Given Before Grand Jury.

TILT BETWEEN ATTORNEYS

Nothing New Learned From Defendant—Widow of Slain Man in Courtroom.

WARRENTON, VA., September 30.—The prosecution in the trial of J. D. Harris, who is on trial for the life here for the murder of W. A. Thompson, associate editor of the Warrenton Virginian, scored a point this afternoon, when the court sustained an objection offered when the defense attempted to place on the stand in rebuttal ex-Judge Shumate, foreman of the grand jury which indicted Harris.

It was stated that the defense expected to prove by the witness that Irving Macpherson, one of the witnesses for the prosecution, contradicted his statement that Harris had called to him to take Thompson away for fear of trouble which might result if he continued his aggressions. The jury was ordered from the courtroom while counsel argued the admissibility of Macpherson's testimony. During the argument a sharp tilt occurred between Commonwealth's Attorney Keith and Attorney Macpherson. The court decided that Shumate could not testify the defense noted an exception.

Probable Verdict To-Morrow.

Considerable progress was made in the trial to-day, but it was apparent when court adjourned this evening until to-morrow morning that a verdict could not be reached before Saturday.

Witnesses testified they did not hear Harris call to have Thompson taken away.

Albert Thomas testified that Harris remarked after the shooting that he had been compelled to shoot Thompson.

The widow of the deceased, accompanied by her oldest child and Thompson's sister, appeared in the courtroom.

CLEANEST CUT CORNER PULLED OFF IN YEARS

Shorts Taken by Surprise and Price of Wheat Is Shot Up Fourteen Cents—Manipulators Unknown.

CHICAGO, September 30.—The wheat "squeeze" which disturbed the annals of speculative routine with a 14-cent advance in the September option on the Board of Trade here to-day lacked none of the features of former activity when Partridge and others were wont to explode bombshells under the trade.

It was the cleanest cut of any corner in many years. It came out of a clear sky. September wheat had been lagging toward the end with every evidence of ebbing vitality. For a month there had been practically nothing doing in the option. September closed yesterday at 1.16 and staggeringly slept through most of to-day's session slightly above that figure.

In a vague sort of way there was known to be a short interest out, but that some particular individual or clique had secured control of the long side was undreamed of by all not in the deal. The trader, or traders, in control are said to have held about 1,000,000 bushels, while the scattered short interest ran between five and ten millions, according to the average expert guess.

In volume this does not begin to compare with some deals which board of trade history reveals, but in compact efficiency it is said to be the peer of any.

Riot of Shorts.

September was at 1.07 when the riot of the shorts began. Conditions had been bearish and, although September had held steadily in price the shorts still believed the break would come. But the break did not materialize.

One long with 5,000 bushels to his credit snatched his profit at 1.10 and then watched what became of his sale. In the next thirty minutes it changed hands twenty-eight times. The last man securing it paid $1.20 for it. Before it rested in his hands brokerage commissions aggregated $350. One of the most influential traders on the board waited until the top had been reached and then delivered the actual wheat at $1.20—100,000 bushels of it. Little wheat came out until $1.18 was reached.

Lost Sheep Found

Near Penitentiary

Appropriately enough, the lost sheep was found late yesterday afternoon wandering about in Penitentiary Bottom. No one claimed it, so an employee of the Richmond Boarding Stable took it in charge and gave it a stall. The stable is not designed for the care of sheep, so the matter was reported to the Second Police Station last night.

The sergeant who did not know just exactly what disposition to make of such a prisoner, so he temporized and telephoned the stable to hold the sheep until it was found. He then took him to the station, where more light will be cast upon the subject. Meanwhile the animal resists quietly, paying little attention to the future.

room for the first time this afternoon, but remained only a short time.

The morning session was taken up by the questioning of the defendant by the Commonwealth's Attorney. Although the defendant was subjected to a rigid inquisition relating to the happenings leading up to the shooting, nothing new was added to his testimony of yesterday.

Evidence Not Allowed.

In attempt to show that Harris had previously been free with a pistol under less provocation than when he shot Thompson, counsel for the State produced E. F. Ramey, of Strasburg, Va., who, it is alleged, Harris had trouble with while teaching at Purcellville. The court, however, sustained an objection by counsel for the defense that such evidence was not relevant in the present case, and the witness was not allowed to testify.

Miss Nina Walter, of Winchester, Va., testified regarding abusive language used by Thompson to Harris at the railroad station on the evening of April 24, when Harris accompanied her to the train. Miss Agnes Strother also gave testimony to this effect.

At this figure and above a neat profit was garnered.

Deliveries amounted to 415,000 bush-
